SPECIAL CLEARANCE AND ISSUANCE PROCEDURES

(TL:VISA-215; 10-24-2000)

All VISAS ALPHA messages for IV clearance must include applicant's last complete address in the Netherlands. Posts with CLASS capability should not send NIV clearance requests to Amsterdam unless a CLASS check indicates derogatory information on file there.

DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS

Police Record

(TL:VISA-440; 07-31-2002)

Unavailable. Police records will not be provided by Dutch police to individuals requesting them, but may be requested by bona fide applicants for immigrant visas through the U.S. Consulate where visa application is made. Dutch police will not provide arrest and conviction records for outside posts unless requests for such records are routed through the Consulate General in Amsterdam in a VISAS ALPHA message. U.S. consular officers should require the police certificate of good conduct issued by the Ministry of Justice of The Netherlands. Certificates of good conduct (Bewijs van Goed Gedrag) issued by municipalities should not be accepted.

Approximately four weeks are required to obtain the certificate from The Netherlands Government, provided there is no derogatory information, concerning the applicant. In cases where there is derogatory information, it will take up to two months before the record is received at the Consulate General in Amsterdam. The certificate, which is in the Dutch language, covers criminal investigation only. Criminal records are expunged 20 years following termination of the case (i.e., after service of any prison sentence), provided no other offense is committed in the interim.

These certificates may be used only in processing visa applications and may not be given to the applicant or to a private individual. If there is criminal information, it may be shown on the front or reverse of the certificate, or, in some cases, only on the reverse of one copy of the certificate. The visa applicant may not be informed of the source of any derogatory information contained in the police certificate.
